

100 BOOKS BEFORE GRADUATION

High school is a busy time with school work and all sorts of activities. However, reading for pleasure is a great way to slow down and escape real life pressures. The Redhill Public Library would like to challenge you to read 100 books before you graduate from high school. Just to make it more fun, the Library will reward you with a free book when you complete 50 books, and a $20 gift card when you complete all 100 books. Learn more and register at the Redhill Public Library Website

FAQs:

Who can participate?

Students in 9th through 12th grade, as well as students who have completed 8th grade and not yet started 9th grade.

Which books do I read?

Whatever you want to read, as long as it is on your reading level. Fiction or nonfiction, graphic novels, manga, audiobooks, and books you need to read for a school assignment all count.

Can I read the same book more than one time and record it?

We would like you to read 100 different titles.

Can I log books that I read before registering?

For this challenge, everyone starts from the point they sign up.

I started a book, but didn't like it and don't want to finish it. Can I still add it to my list?

If you have given the book a genuine shot by reading at least half of it, then you can add it to your list.
